THE CONSPIRACY

4. Beginning at least as early as August 2004, and continuing through at least January 2010, in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and elsewhere, defendants

KYLE P. NOVITSKY, a/k/a "Patrick K. Navitsky," and JUDITH ANN ALOE

conspired and agreed with each other, and other persons known and unknown to the grand jury, to commit offenses against the United States, that is:

(a) to knowingly and willfully reset and alter, and cause to be reset and altered, the odometers of used motor vehicles, intending to change the mileage registered by the odometers, in violation of Title 49, United States Code, Sections 32703(2) and 32709(b);

(b) to knowingly and willfully give and cause to be given, in making the written disclosures to the buyers of used motor vehicles required by Title 49, United States Code, Section 32705(a), and Title 49, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 580, false statements relating to the actual mileage of the vehicles, in violation of Title 49, United States Code, Sections 32705(a) and 32709(b); and

(c) with intent to deceive another person, organization, and government, to knowingly make, utter, and possess counterfeit and forged securities of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 513(a).

PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF THE CONSPIRACY

5. It was the purpose of the conspiracy to cause both the immediate and subsequent buyers of used motor vehicles, including ultimate consumers, to pay more for the vehicles than they would have paid if they had known the vehicles' actual mileage. Over the course of this conspiracy, defendants purchased at high mileage, and resold at false, low mileage, approximately 247 vehicles.

MANNER AND MEANS

It was a part of the conspiracy that:

6. Using many different dealer names, both real and fictitious, defendants NOVITSKY and ALOE purchased and caused to be purchased used vehicles (mostly newer, high-mileage vehicles) from franchise offices of a national vehicle leasing company in Florida, California, and elsewhere.

7. Defendants NOVITSKY and ALOE paid for the high-mileage vehicles with cashier's checks and wire transfers from various bank accounts.

8. After purchasing the high-mileage vehicles, defendants NOVITSKY and ALOE transported and caused to be transported vehicles from the leasing company offices where they were purchased to the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and elsewhere.

9. After purchasing the vehicles, defendants NOVITSKY and ALOE caused to be rolled back the vehicles' odometers to lower mileage figures (vehicles with such altered odometers are called "rolled-back vehicles" below).

10. Defendants NOVITSKY and ALOE altered and caused to be altered automobile titles and other motor vehicle title and ownership documents in order to conceal the vehicles' actual high mileages.

11. Using altered vehicle title and ownership documents, defendants NOVITSKY and ALOE obtained and caused to be obtained, usually in the names of various licensed Pennsylvania dealers, automobile titles for the rolled-back vehicles which showed false low mileages for the vehicles.

12. In order to make the appearance and condition of the vehicles match the false low mileages, defendants NOVITSKY and ALOE caused repairs to be made to the vehicles known as "cosmetic reconditioning."

13. Using different dealer names, defendants NOVITSKY and ALOE sold and caused to be sold rolled-back vehicles at wholesale auto auctions in Manheim, Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, and provided to the buyers false low-mileage Pennsylvania titles.

14. The actions and misrepresentations of defendants NOVITSKY and ALOE resulted in the defendants obtaining higher prices for the vehicles sold than they would have received if the vehicles had correct mileage readings, and buyers of the vehicles, including ultimate consumers, paid more for the automobiles than they would have paid if they had known the vehicles' true mileage.
